A Report on CP Activities
JS Murarka Multiple Campus Lahan, Siraha

Background

J S Murarka Multiple Campus Lahan, Siraha (JSMMC in short) is a community-based campus of Madhesh Province located in the picturesque and peaceful surroundings at the heart of Lahan Municipality, Siraha, Nepal. The campus established in 2044 BS with the collaborative efforts has been practically educating the youngsters around this area contributing for comprehensive reforms in higher education in the country particularly by enhancing quality and relevant academic activities. The campus is situated at Lahan Municipality - 10 near Gramin Chowk, 2.5 km far from the national highway. Lahan Municipality has provided a land plot of 15-16-01 Bigha as its main property.

There are different cells and units in this Institution functioning for their respective responsibilities for the better quality to the students. The Campus Management Committee (CMC) will delegate the authority to IQAAC to form the Counseling and Placement Committee (CPC) having one coordinator and four members including at least one member from non-teaching staff. So the total number of the members of this committee will be five and its tenure will be of two years. The IQAAC will form CPC and assign tasks of different types that will be aiming at promoting the services of counseling and placement activities and, hence, would bring the practical value of the programs the institution has been running with. The Counseling and Placement Implementation Guidelines 2017 is a basic outline of guiding information about the ways that the Counseling and Placement cell is supposed to apply for the purpose of counseling and job placement. It covers different activities that are needed to be conducted as counseling and placement ones for the students. This gives the ideas of managing such activities for the students.

Objectives

Since the counseling and placement service is meant to help the graduates/students to carry out what they have thought of being all right for them, it is very important to design an effective guideline that could provide all the required information to the committee for carrying out the actions practically. So, the main objectives of this guideline are as follows:

- To show the clear way to the committee to carry out different counseling and placement activities,
- To develop the systems for the CPC as its principles, rules and regulations as well, and
- To work as a guideline for the CPC and help it in its performance.

The guideline will provide and manage all the needed information for the CPC and keep it to work for the following purposes;

- To Promote, support and ensure the provision of quality counselling including psychosocial services in the entire Education Sector,
- To sensitize and encourage all stakeholders and advocate for policies and strategies to effectively address issues of Counselling and placement services,
- To develop and maintain an up to date Information System on the issues/status of Career Guidance, Counselling, placement of campus leavers,
- To initiate and coordinate the provision of Guidance and Counselling in institutions, and
- To carry out the counseling and placement works properly.
